„In-Country/In-Region Scholarship Programme“

Call for Scholarship Applications 2018
at the Lilongwe University of Agriculture and Natural Resources (LUANAR)
in Malawi

Funded by the Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ)

Application Closing Date: 30.11.2017
DAAD (German Academic Exchange Service), as a publicly funded, self-governing organisation of the institutions of higher education in Germany, promotes international academic exchange as well as educational co-operation with developing countries through a variety of funding and scholarship programmes.

As part of the „In-Country / In-Region Scholarship Programme“ DAAD offers scholarships for PhD studies. The programme is funded by the German Federal Ministry of Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ) and aims at university staff in the first line, without neglecting the public sector demand of academically trained personnel.

The target group for scholarships are graduates and postgraduates from Sub-Saharan Africa with a Master’s degree if applying for a doctoral programme who want to pursue PhD courses in their home country (so called In-Country scholarships) or in another country (In-Region scholarships). It has been agreed upon that DAAD cooperates with Lilongwe University of Agriculture and Natural Resources (LUANAR) by offering up to two In-Country scholarships and up to four In-Region scholarships for PhD studies at Lilongwe University of Agriculture and Natural Resources (LUANAR) for the intake 2018.

Applicants

- have successfully completed generally a three-year university degree (Master candidates) or a two-year university degree (doctoral candidates) with above average results (upper forth of class)
- clearly show motivation and strong commitment
- have thorough knowledge of the language of instruction
- have completed their last university degree not more than 6 years ago at the time of application
- must be nationals or permanent resident of a Sub-Saharan African country
- should generally be a) staff member of a public university, b) candidate considered for teaching or research staff recruitment, c) from the public sector

Female applicants and candidates from less privileged regions or groups are especially encouraged to participate in the programme.

The scholarships are initially granted for one year and can be extended to upon receipt of an application for extension. Scholars must demonstrate satisfactory progress before an extension is granted. All further information will be provided after admission to the scholarship programme.

The In-Country/In-Region Scholarship Programme Scholarships supports studies in subject areas with strong relevance to national development.

The scholarships at Lilongwe University of Agriculture and Natural Resources (LUANAR) are available in the following fields:

- Aquaculture and Fisheries Science
- Rural Development and Extension

Lilongwe University of Agriculture and Natural Resources (LUANAR)

The duration

- of the PhD programme is three years generally starting in January.
The application process contains two steps.

First step:
Applicants must apply for their studies at Lilongwe University of Agriculture and Natural Resources (LUANAR) using the contacts and the method that is prescribed by the institution. Lilongwe University of Agriculture and Natural Resources (LUANAR) has set their own deadlines.
